The Gift of Anger Retreat

Led By: Anna Racine

Date: Nov 10 – 12 Cost: $350

How many of us were told that anger is inappropriate? Anger is both an energy and a gift. It is like gas to the automobile: it fuels us to move forward. Anger can be a powerful tool that motivates us to rise to a challenge. The difficulty is when we abuse anger and use it in destructive ways. In this Retreat, we will learn how to express our anger in a positive way, so we can harness the power of anger.

Anger is an essential emotion for each of us to understand, which is an essential part of healing.

It involves a daily practice of reading scripture, silent prayer, and various fasting practices, all done as part of a fraternity of men journeying together. To date, more than 100,000 men around the world have journeyed through this spiritual exercise, and now we are bringing Exodus 90 to our parish.
