

Share

100%

Normal text

Arial

- 17 +

Sunday May 22, 2022

Sixth Sunday of Easter

Parishioner Reflection

By: Paul Legace

This week the Holy Trinity takes centre stage. God the Father, God the Son and C the Holy Spirit are the focus in our scripture readings and they work in concert to help humanity to understand the abounding love of God. In the first reading we meet many e Christians who struggle to resolve their differences regarding membership in their communities. It's noteworthy to read how they resolve their differences. In the Book of Revelation John describes a vision of the glory of God and how this light and goodness will overcome all evil. In the Gospel Jesus delivers a departing speech that emboldens hi disciples to eventually overcome their fears and trust in Jesus and the Advocate who is s to help them and guide them. Here we have images of the Holy Trinity and how they interact and inspire Christians to bring about the kingdom of God here on earth.

The first reading once again comes from the Acts of the Apostles. Paul and Barnabas involved in a debate and there is dissension with individuals that are not Jewish must be circumcised according to the custom of Moses or they cannot be saved. Paul and Barnab had travelled widely spreading the Good News to many Gentiles in the ancient wor

